ENTERTAINMENTS.
Hypocrite.
"Prince Pro Tem," the new comic opera, was presented last evening to a fair-sized audience by a capable company and was much enjoyed. The opera is replete with tuneful numbers and is well staged.

Thursday evening "The Amazons" will be presented. The production is by Charles Frohman and has Miss Johnstone Bennett as "Lady Thomas," the tom-boy of the "Belurlet" family. This ought to be attraction enough, especially as exchanges agree that Miss Bennett surpasses her previous work. The sale of seats is now open.

A social event of the season, so far as matters theatrical go, will take place Saturday night, February 16, in the engagement of the English actors, Mr. and Mrs. Kendal. The engagement is for one night and they will be seen in a play which they have not yet presented to New Haven theater-goers, Sydney Grundy's new comedy, "A White Lie."

Grand Opera House.
A large audience greeted the opening performance of G. B. Bunnell's Grand Mid-Winter Carnival and European Circus at the Grand Opera House last evening. The program includes some of the best specialties on the stage and crowded houses will, no doubt, be the result.

The four Cohans present a laughable farce entitled "Goggles" Doll House." It introduces many funny situations and includes some very pretty dancing. The Les Mayos made a hit in their fancy trick and comedy skating act. The act includes four persons in fancy and trick skating that is very well performed. Miss Jessie Miller, only sixteen years old, plays the cornet to suit the taste of all. The Bonitas, direct from Europe for the great Barnum show, sing a number of catchy songs and bring forth rounds of applause in their electric novelties. Ray Burton in slack wire and rifle shot performs some marvelous feats.

The performance as a whole is a great success and more than met expectations. It includes all kinds of variety performers of the highest class and keeps one constantly laughing. The Ducrows, the clever aerial acrobats, who were delayed on account of the recent storm, will positively appear at the matinee to-day and at every performance during the week. Another addition is the Imperial Japanese troupe of jugglers, who will perform wonderful feats.

The essays on the circus in the prize contest are rapidly coming in and the plan has met with great popular favor. The management gives notice that all contributions must be handed in by to-morrow.

There will be matinees this week every day beside the regular evening performances, such being the popular desire to see the big special attraction which Mr. Bunnell has provided for his patrons.

Occupying boxes at the Grand last night were Mayor Hendrick, Tax Collector Anthony, City Auditor Brown, Captain D. S. Thomas, Superintendent Smith of the fire alarm, Fire Marshal Hubbard, ex-Commissioner Andrews and others.

Poll's Wonderland Theater.
Sheik Hadji Tahar's troupe of Moorish and Bedouin Arabs opened a week's engagement at the Wonderland yesterday. It is a great aggregation of acrobats, the feats they perform being of the most startlingly sensational description. After going through many of their native land they form a human pyramid, with one huge giant making the base and carrying the whole weight of his eleven associates. It is a most thrilling and picturesque finale.

phenomenal performance. The vaudeville features are excellent. Miss Willis sings most charmingly, and Mr. Collins injects some bright comedy into their pretty musical sketch. Miss Maude Raymond, the California trio, Frank Riley, the Hill sisters, George Austin, May and Hunter, and Gracie and Reynolds, are exceedingly clever artists who present very attractive specialties. Be sure and see this fine show.

WOMEN'S SUFFRAGE MEETING.
Lecture on the Subject by Miss Yates—A Society Formed—Why Women Should Vote.
Miss Elizabeth Yates of Bristol, Me., spoke last evening in the lecture room of the First M. E. church on "The Home and the State." She said that Blackstone speaks of goodness, wisdom and power as the three elements of sovereignty. In regard to the first element women believe that the mind is a power in the world, and that the minds of women are as capable and even more so than those of men, for bringing that good into our politics which they need. In Colorado, where women are admitted to suffrage, the greatest registration of women was in those wards of Denver where there was the most intelligence and morality, thus disproving the statement that if women are permitted to vote, bad women will exert an evil influence in politics. In the crucial hours of national history the wisdom of women has turned the scale for human welfare.

The power that makes for sovereignty is not the might of muscle. No political party elects candidates to office with reference to their pugilistic abilities. In the west in many places Indians just from the reservations, in their blankets and semi-savages vote to tax women who own property, while these women themselves have no voice at all in the matter. The chief plea against women voting is that her enfranchisement is an injury to her home. This is a serious charge, as whatever works for the injury of the home is conducive to the overthrow of the nation, but it has been proved that no such result follows, and that the enfranchisement of women and education in political affairs helps her better to determine her domestic relation. The speaker interspersed her remarks with many witty comparisons and phrases, which made her talk doubly interesting. At the close of the lecture a branch of Stimulating, exhilarating and strengthening, without alcohol. Relieves weariness and exhaustion. It adds new tissue to emaciated forms, makes them plump, rosy and healthy. Thin, pale people will become fleshy and rosy checked after using it. PASKOLA supersedes Cod Liver Oil (without its repulsive taste), and arrests the wasting in consumptive cases. You can buy it at any drug store. Send your name to The Pre-Digested Food Co., 30 Reade st., New York, and get their interesting pamphlet.

The Woman's Suffrage association was formed with thirteen members. Mrs. Sheldon, wife of Judge Sheldon, was elected president of the society, which will some time within a month meet at the president's call. Mrs. Sheldon will attend the Woman's Suffrage meeting to be held in Washington, D. C., next week.

WALLINGFORD.
The polls will be open in the town hall this afternoon from 2 to 8 o'clock to vote on the proposed charter amendment relating to lighting the borough by electricity. It is necessary that two-thirds majority be cast to make the vote valid, and a year later another vote must be taken.

The Wallingford Gaslight company held its annual meeting yesterday afternoon and elected as directors W. J. Leavenworth, Mrs. P. A. McCallan, C. H. Tibbitts, L. M. Hubbard. The directors hold their meeting next Monday.

There promises to be a large attendance at the entertainment and social of Mispah chapter, O. E. S., in the armory this evening.

The condition of William N. Foster of Silk street last evening was considered extremely critical. Officer D. O'Reilly is suffering from an attack of the grip.

Leon L. Hall and Edward Rawson are the delegates from N. Mix camp to the state encampment of the Sons of Veterans in Winsted to-day.

A large delegation from Meriden came down here last evening to the Knights of Columbus entertainment in town hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Davis of North Main street have a new baby girl that arrived here yesterday morning.

The electric road between here and Meriden, is again open, and cars were running yesterday for the first time since the blizzard.

Captain Robert J. Lane and Charles Wooding will attend the Sons of Veterans' state encampment in Winsted to-day.

A large delegation from Company H of Middletown is expected to be present at Company K's smoker to-morrow evening.
